C.W. Baker High Family,

This week our Student Advisory Council met to share the latest student happenings around the building and to share in some holiday fun. Mr. Allan, our resident team-building expert, created some fun ‘reindeer’ games and student leaders continued to hone their leadership and collaboration skills.

The 5 week, mid-marking period ended today and student interim reports will be available on Schooltool next week. Be sure to be checking in with your students on their progress and reach out to members of our support TEAM if you have any questions or concerns. With four more days of school before we begin our holiday break, we continue to rely on TEAMwork between students, staff, and families, to keep everyone happy and healthy. We will be continuing to remind students over the next four days about proper mask-wearing, following our cafeteria protocols, and using QR codes to record seating. We absolutely need student assistance and understanding with these procedures as we work diligently to keep our school community safe. Your reinforcement of the importance of these procedures at home is greatly appreciated. While we look forward to the holiday break as a time to rest and make positive memories with families, we also know that the holidays can be a very difficult time for students and their families. Please reach out to our counseling or administrative TEAM should your student or your family need any support or assistance at any time. Thank you for your continued support of your students and our C.W. Baker High TEAM and have a wonderful weekend!

Gratefully, Kris H. Denton - Principal

Applications are now being accepted from high school seniors to represent New York State at the 2022 National Youth Science Camp (NYSCamp). Two students will be selected from each state and Washington, D.C., as well as eight countries, to attend the virtual camp, which will be held from June 27 through July 20, 2022.

The National Youth Science Camp is a science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) opportunity. The camp will provide daily lectures and seminars with leading scientists, directed studies alongside visiting and resident STEM professionals, and engaging activities in the natural, physical, and computer sciences and the creative arts. The deadline to apply is March 31st, 2022. Applications must be submitted online.

For more information about the program, please visit the National Youth Science Foundation website, the NYSCamp website, or the NYSED Office of Curriculum and Instruction Science Awards and Scholarships page. For additional information regarding the application process, please contact the New York State Coordinator for the National Youth Science Camp, Nicole Marschilok, at 518-474-5922 or at Nicole.Marschilok@nysed.gov.

Sincerely,
The Office of Curriculum and Instruction
